

Sheboygan Children's Book Festival Donation

Thank you for supporting the Sheboygan Children's Book Festival with a donation!

The Sheboygan Children's Book Festival would not be possible without the generous support of individuals and groups who believe in the transformative power of reading and the literary arts. Donations of all amounts are sincerely appreciated and allow us to provide free programs that give children, teens, and families the rare opportunity to connect with outstanding children's book creators.

Individuals and groups who donate $100 or more to the Sheboygan Children's Book Festival will be acknowledged on the book festival Web site <https://SheboyganChildrensBookFestival.org>.
